Certification Prep Sessions

June 22, 2012: New York, NY

Get yourself CERTIFIED!

Foundations Prep Sessions and an onsite testing center!

The Hitachi Data Systems Academy is offering certification prep sessions and onsite testing for Foundations (modular and enterprise) with an option to take full 3 day or 4 day training prior to the cert prep.

These one day certification prep sessions will review key areas of expertise for the Hitachi Data Systems Certified Professional (Foundation Level) credential.

Register for the course of your choice online through the Learning Center. The sessions are designed primarily for the seasoned student of Hitachi Data Systems products and technology.

Space is limited so sign up early!

Workshop benefits

- A cost effective way to take the full training course, a one day certification prep session and a special on-site testing facility.
- A great way to re-certify or to obtain advanced credentials in one location.
- One Hitachi certification exam ($200 value) is included in each training offer. This offer is only good for this event and location.
- Counseling on training and certification paths.

Who should attend

If you are an individual with existing knowledge of Hitachi Data Systems products and technology and/or implementation experience, the certification preparation sessions offer a quick refresher on key test objectives in an ideal review environment.

Certification and education counseling will be available throughout the event.
